

Peer Review
for Life & Career Review (L&CR), 1202.

The sections below are not water tight. That is, each question could be in one section or another. They do reflect what we think is important to consider when evaluating the value of an L&CR and your colleague's performance in handling the assignment.

*Required

Name of associate whose work you are reviewing *

Rex Costello

Your name*

Erik Wells-Hanson

Questions around the YIELDS of the L&CR

L&CR Qualities - Design and Style *

How would you rate the design and style of the pages in this L&CR?

1 2 3 4 5 6

Delighted

Much room for improvement

Design and Style = 2

L&CR Qualities - Navigation *

How easy is it to navigate around the L&CR (did you find a Table of Contents, Tabs, etc.)

1 2 3 4 5 6

Absolutely clear

Difficult to get around

Navigation = 3

Quality of Reflections (in journal) - Insights into un/learning derived from OP1a *

1 2 3 4 5 6

Incisive, thorough

Your writing conveys a person who has done a lot of personal reflection. Not sure to what extent insights were attained through OP1a? Have not seen journal.

Quality of Reflections (in journal) - Value of discussion of choices made when deciding how to do OP1a *

1 2 3 4 5 6

Incisive, thorough

Weak, minimalist

not yet seen journal reflections

Quality of Reflections (in journal) - Depth of analysis around what went well and the challenges experienced *

1 2 3 4 5 6

Profound

Minimalist

Open question - what did you especially enjoy about this L&CR and what would you have done differently *

Sheet1

Sheet2

I thoroughly enjoyed your willingness to share your life experience in such a transparent fashion. You own your experiences and embrace them all as precious in relation to your becoming the soulful and awake individual that you are today. I found some of your experiences to be very parallel to my own. This allowed me the opportunity to reflect once again on my own awakening as a conscious, intentional and spiritually driven soul. I thought that your delivery as a writer was quite good which shows that you spent some time putting your thoughts together. I have a hard time saying what someone should do differently in this setting. Perhaps, you could have added a table of contents to help with directing the reader to the different periods of growth. I also may have liked to hear more about your experience with Outward Bound. This seemed to be a profound transformational experience that yielded personal growth, new awareness and vision for the future. Expansion in this section as well the one dealing with Naropa University (a school that I visited) might have provided some good substance. All in all, I enjoyed learning about you and look forward to getting to know more about Rex and his intentional, passionate journey in this world.